

ISSUES OF STRENGTHENING THE IDEOLOGICAL IMMUNITY OF MILITARY SERVANTS AGAINST INTERNAL AND EXTERNAL THREATS

A. Uzokov

Teacher of the special training cycle of the Faculty of Military Education of FarDU

Abstract: This article covers the issues of regulating the internal and organizational ideological immunity of military personnel against globalization. if we take into account the lack of scientific knowledge in practice, we should send the help of experienced experts, support the influence of power, if we can justify the original purpose of foreign ideas, try to form a culture of distinguishing between good and bad in the thinking of young people. We can achieve our goal

Keywords: patriotism, globalization, military personnel, idea, ideology, threat, immunity.

Since the end of the 20th century, a number of developed countries of the world, which are experiencing the process of economic and political development, have been actively engaged in the distribution of ideological fields in order to establish sovereignty over countries and take full advantage of their social and economic resources. Nowadays, with the existence of states and organizations that protect human rights and their increasing social role, they are well aware that they cannot completely conquer a certain country, they cannot literally turn it into a colony. While the older generation is well aware that its worldview is firmly formed, it cannot be influenced by foreign ideas and concepts, it is important to poison the generation that is now forming as a person in life, it is easier and provides a long-term guarantee for them. they understand well that it will happen. In carrying out such work, we are witnessing that the interested countries use the achievements of scientific research and experimental testing institutes, laboratories, psychological services with great scientific potential and experience, radio electronics, computer engineering, psychochemistry, neurobiology and other sciences. .

Taking into account the fact that there are very few opportunities to protect the young generation from their influence, to protect them, to stop the foreign ideas that have entered, and there is little opportunity to ban them in practice, we also use the support of experienced experts. , in order to reduce the impact of public pressure, if we can scientifically substantiate the original purpose of foreign ideas, if we can form a culture of distinguishing between good and bad in the thinking of young people, we can achieve our goal. We need to get it.

The ideological immune system embodies a number of elements around it. The first of these is deep and scientifically based knowledge. On the one hand, knowledge gives an opportunity to understand foreign and inhuman concepts, to imagine the harm they may cause in the future and today, on the other hand, they make the individual prioritize national and universal values, social guarantees of people, the value of human dignity, every it should serve to realize the uniqueness of a person.

Another important element in ideological immunity is the concept of value, which ensures the stability of ideological immunity based on the objectivity, truthfulness, and comprehensiveness of acquired knowledge. In simpler words, it is the formation of the ability to take a critical approach to any influences that are being accepted or are trying to be absorbed.

Another important element in ideological immunity is to ensure harmony of the state and society with the ideology of the individual. Increasing people's trust in the state, harmony of the worldview of each person with the ideology of the society and the state is the main criterion of the democratic processes implemented in our country.

Ideological prevention is of great importance in the formation of such an ideological immunity system. Because in its essence, it includes a system of measures aimed at preventing the entry of foreign ideas and their elimination. Ideological prophylaxis consists of a complex of ideological-educational, political, economic, social, spiritual activities carried out by social institutes (family, neighborhood, educational institutions, youth unions, law enforcement agencies) in various forms. if there is a deficiency in any of the above-mentioned areas, there will be an attempt to insert foreign ideas from that place. At this point, it is important to regularly launch programs, broadcasts and broadcasts on the topic of patriotism through the mass media and television, speeches, TV and radio programs that deeply analyze the harmful consequences of foreign ideas for society and reveal their roots. we need to remember that we have

Therefore, it is one of the important issues for our country to form every young adult who is spiritually perfect, strong-willed, full of faith, has strong ideological knowledge and can stand against foreign ideas based on his solid knowledge. will remain.

REFERENCES:

1. The idea of national independence: basic concepts and principles. (Materials for lectures) Tashkent. "Generation of the new century".
2. Organizational-methodical approaches in forming the idea of national independence. Toshket. "Academy".