Annotation: It is known that after the independence of our country, spiritual and educational work is one of the important priority issues of our state policy. began to be considered. Since the beginning of the winds of independence in our country, people in his mind, outlook, thinking, goals and aspirations, in a word huge changes in the spiritual-ideological world, spiritual nature and even appearance started to happen. Because independence is the gateway to freedom, nationalism, and patriotism opened and started people towards goodness.

Key words: Motherland, development, values, youth, art, independence, education, patriotism.

"Watan" is derived from the Arabic word, which means "motherland". Homeland is the place where the navel blood of a person was shed, the place where his descendants and ancestors were born, and his social environment and means man, his life and spiritual concepts. "Patriotism". Loyalty to the motherland, serving it, maintaining the country's peace, active for the development of the Motherland spiritual and moral qualities that encourage to be are understood. Patriotism means loving the land inherited from our ancestors, preserving and developing the country's past and future, folk traditions, songs, and values."

The issue of educating young people in the spirit of patriotism is at the state level because of the issues, a clearly planned path to such goals implementation of the tasks defined in the maps increase is desirable. Everyone understands the concept of homeland in different ways. interprets at his own level of understanding. This is a person's birth, umbilical cord blood is a spilled place, where childhood and youth are spent, where one gets education, travels, It is a place of permanent refuge. [1]

To love the country, to serve for its development, its protection from the evil eye, dark forces, protection of his honor -all these are among the responsible tasks that you and we face. Homeland concept, the feeling of loving, honoring, protecting him not only in man, but can also be observed in the animal world. A fish to water, an animal to its nest, an insect tends to the nest.

The issue of youth education is the most important of our state's policies today is one of its strategic tasks. Education of young people and their personality Tom onlam a kamal is entrusted to all general education schools. Educating young people in the spirit of patriotism for military service in the development of the country It is not an exaggeration to say that our art has a place in this regard.[2]

From this point of view, there are always issues of education in the spirit of patriotism belonged to military service. But we limit the youth through this and the role of our art in educating them in the spirit of patriotism We consider it incomparable. Today, there is little spirituality among young people if we educate by devoting ourselves to art, there will be excellent light upon light. Also art, It is essential to develop all the abilities of the students and create a creative desire is considered a factor.[3]

The changes taking place in our time of advanced ideas, as well as explanation in a modern spirit on the subjects of art in boys and girls It is a rich resource for cultivating ideological beliefs and a spiritual worldview is considered Only then they have an emotional impact on the soul of the younger generation strong national education system that educates bravery, courage, and initiative The concept of patriotism is often related to military activities is used. In one respect, this is true.
