People began to speak many centuries ago, and since then they have been speaking different languages. Every language reflects the soul, behaviour and temperament of each nationality. People created their own alphabets and rules, but they always wanted to communicate with each other, to understand and to know more about each other. Learning foreign languages is very important in today's life. It is very important to know any foreign languages because knowing them can help people to communicate and to understand each other. There are many nationalities and nations in the world. And they need to understand each other to make business, to sell goods, to enjoy their cultures and even their national food. All languages are different and not the same as each other. They are very hard or easy to learn. In my opinion, it is up to the language learners.

Learning a new language is always an exciting experience. There could be many reasons that lead to the need to learn new languages but, the advantages are vast. In here you can read some useful examples for knowing foreign language:

- Learning a new language gives you a chance to see the many things that are around you in a different aspect.
- You will thus broaden your way of thinking and in the end as you learn you will enhance your intelligence.
- Learning foreign language helps while traveling around the world. It will be easier and pleasant for you with knowing any kind of foreign language.
- Studying foreign language grows your brain.
- It gives you more creativity and increase your creativity.
- Knowing any foreign language boost your confidence too.
- A second language improves your skills and abilities.
- Knowing foreign languages open the door to one of the most famous Institutes or Universities in the world.
- Learning foreign language is a great idea and very interesting hobby.

I think that, today the world's most important and one of the international foreign language is English. And it takes the first place in the world among other foreign languages. In addition, it is a global language of travel, business, pop culture, sport and science. We need English language when we go abroad to communicate with people which live there. Over one billion people speak in English. Today, in fact, about three hundred and sixty million people speak in English as their first language. "There are one billion five hundred million English-language learners worldwide", -says British Council member John Knagg. Moreover, English is an international language of many international organisations as United Nations Organisation, United Nations International Children's Emergency Fund, United Nations Educational, Scientific and Cultural Organisation and many others. Most of their meetings and seminars are held in English language.

•How can you start learning foreign languages?

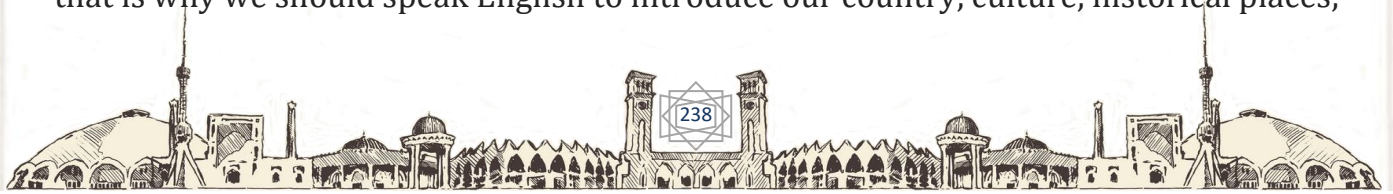

However, you need to understand that learning and new language is not an easy task. You need to invest your time and energy in it so as to achieve results. You must be hard-working. Enthusiasm to learn is all that you will need so as to get the first few steps done. After the first few words, you will like the experience and will be hard for you to stop.

•How to speed up your learning process?

The most important thing is "To have positive thoughts". Encouraging yourself can work perfectly well for you. You need to read many books in the language that want to learn. You will get to learn many new words. You also need to choose books of your favourite authors. This is important because you understand their way of writing and will be easy to understand. However, you need to choose forums with eloquent speakers as it is the only way you will gain much. Furthermore, you should have positive such that will not only help you to learn fast but also to reduce and suppress stress associated with trying to learn a new language. Make sure that you learn the basics well. If you do not get the basics right, you are likely to have stress throughout your learning. In addition, you should revise regularly vocabulary not to forget them in the future and do not worry about mistakes. Through these mistakes, you are bound to learn a lot.

To my mind English is worth studying. There is a proverb: "Add new language is a new world", "Knowledge is a power", -one great man said. Speaking a foreign language one can not only read the papers, magazines and original books by outstanding writers, but as well watch satellite programs, travel easily to different parts of the world. Besides, understanding and speaking a foreign language become necessary while applying for a good and well paid job.

Another reason for learning English language: We live in Uzbekistan and it has a lot of historical places. Today our government pays a special attention to eroturism in our country. Because it brings much money to the budget of our country. Many tourists come to visit our country every year. Most of them do not know our Uzbek language that is why we should speak English to introduce our country, culture, historical places, national food, our customs and traditions. It is very important to make a good impression on them. We must to show them that what kind of hospitable nation we are.

In conclusion, I would like to say that every person in our country should know any foreign language because it is demanding of present time. Especially nowadays it is important to know foreign languages. Our President Shavkat Miromonovich Mirziyoyev does all his best to improve people's life in our country. Moreover, our President is creating great conditions for young people to become well-educated, and being mentally and physically mature. Additionally, he always supports young generation. Because there is no prosperous future without young generation.
